Armor of God worksheets tailored for adults have become increasingly prevalent as tools designed to facilitate this equipping process.

Context and Origins

The Armor of God passage (Ephesians 6:10-18) serves as a theological foundation emphasizing spiritual vigilance and strength. Over time, Christian educators and leaders have sought effective methods to translate this ancient metaphor into contemporary application. Worksheets emerged as an educational strategy, providing structured frameworks for adults to reflect on each element of the armor in relation to personal faith and daily challenges.
