The Blind Owl represents a seminal moment in Iranian literature, marking a shift towards modernist narrative techniques and existential inquiry. Written by Sadegh Hedayat in the early 20th century, the novella encapsulates the psychological and cultural turbulence experienced in Iran during a time of rapid modernization and social change.

Historical and Cultural Context

Hedayat wrote The Blind Owl against the backdrop of early 20th-century Iran, a period rife with political upheaval and cultural introspection. The introduction of Western ideas challenged traditional values, leading to intellectual debates about identity and modernity. Hedayat's exposure to European literature and philosophy deeply influenced his worldview, which is evident in the novella's existential themes and stylistic experimentation.

Structural and Narrative Analysis

The novella's fragmented and often surreal narrative structure mirrors the fractured psyche of its protagonist, who remains unnamed. This narrative choice allows readers

Political and Social Critique
