Written in 1989, the novel reflects a period marked by socio-political transformation in Mexico. The backdrop of the Mexican Revolution serves as more than just a setting; it frames the ideological conflicts that mirror the personal struggles of the protagonist, Tita. The traditional family structure and rigid gender roles exemplify the societal constraints of the time.

Cause and Consequence in Narrative Structure

Tita's inability to marry due to family traditions is the primary cause that sets the plot in motion.
