Contextual Background

Smith's work was written during a period of renewed interest in space exploration, coinciding with NASA missions and popular culture's fascination with Mars. concept of identity and the self. The shadow serves as a metaphor for the unseen aspects of the self, capturing the complexity and mystery of human identity.

Another important technique in Smith's poetry is her use of metaphor. By drawing parallels between seemingly disparate concepts, Smith creates a rich, layered meaning that invites readers to explore and interpret her work in multiple ways.

Themes of Loss and Memory

Themes of loss and memory are central to "Life on Mars." Smith's exploration of these themes is deeply personal, often reflecting on the death of her father and the complexities of family relationships. In poems like "Sci-Fi," Smith uses the imagery of science fiction to explore the concept of loss and the search for meaning in a world that often feels chaotic and unpredictable.

The use of science fiction as a metaphor allows Smith to explore complex emotions in a way that is both accessible and deeply resonant. By placing human experiences within the context of a familiar yet fantastical world, Smith creates a sense of connection and empathy that draws readers into her poetry.
