definition, scope, and significance of jurisprudence in the legal context. Expect questions asking you to differentiate between jurisprudence and other branches of law, such as legislation or legal practice.

Schools of Jurisprudence

One of the most frequent topics in exams is the various schools of jurisprudence. These include Natural Law, Legal Positivism, Historical School, Sociological Jurisprudence, and Realism. Understanding the main proponents, core principles, and criticisms of each school is essential. Evaluating Legal Philosophy and Critical Thinking

Jurisprudence exams are designed not merely to test factual
