One song, in particular, has been widely regarded as the most racist song in American history, symbolizing the systemic racism that plagued the nation during its era and leaving a lasting impact on society.

Historical Context of Racist Music in America

Music has always been a mirror to society's values and tensions. In the 19th and early 20th centuries, minstrel shows, popular songs, and performances often perpetuated harmful stereotypes about African Americans and other marginalized groups. These songs were not only entertainment but also tools that reinforced racial hierarchies and social norms.
