Literary Techniques and Style

Alexie's use of humor is a defining feature of his writing style. He employs humor as a coping mechanism for his characters and as a tool for social commentary. This blend of humor and tragedy creates a unique narrative voice that is both engaging and thought-provoking. The story "This Is What It Means to Say Phoenix, Arizona" is a prime example of this technique, as the protagonist, Victor, uses humor to deal with the loss of his father and the challenges of his own life.

Additionally, Alexie's use of intertextuality is evident in the title itself, which references the popular American Western characters, the Lone Ranger and Tonto. This reference serves as a commentary on the stereotypes and misrepresentations of Native Americans in popular culture.
