4. Hot glue gun and glue sticks
5. Scissors or a craft knife

6. Sandpaper
7. Clear sealant spray

Step-by-Step Instructions

Follow these steps to create your Nightmare Before Christmas countdown clock:

Step 1: Prepare the Clock

If you're using an old clock, disassemble it carefully. Remove the hands and any other parts that might interfere with your design. Sand the surface lightly to ensure the paint adheres well.

Step 2: Paint the Base

Using black spray paint, cover the entire surface of the clock. Allow it to dry completely. This will serve as the base color for your design.

Using stencils or vinyl decals, apply the Nightmare Before Christmas characters and designs. You can find these online or create your own. Secure them with hot glue if necessary. Make sure to place them strategically around the clock face.

Step 4: Paint the Details

Use white and purple spray paint to add details and highlights. Be careful not to overspray, as this can ruin the stencils. Allow the paint to dry completely.

Step 5: Seal the Clock

Apply a clear sealant spray to protect your design from wear and tear. This will also give your clock a glossy finish.
