The History of Crossword Puzzles

The first known crossword puzzle was created by Arthur Wynne, a journalist from Liverpool, and published in the New York World on December 21, 1913. The puzzle quickly gained popularity, and by the 1920s, crosswords were a regular feature in many newspapers across the United States. Over the years, crosswords have evolved, with different styles and formats emerging, including the British-style cryptic crossword and the American-style themed crossword.
