Their vision was to create a golf course that would be both a sanctuary for golfers and a stage for the sport's greatest moments. They purchased an old indigo plantation and began transforming the land into what would become one of the most celebrated golf courses worldwide.

Course architect Alister MacKenzie was commissioned to design the course, bringing his expertise and innovative design philosophy. The course layout has been subtly refined over the years to accommodate advances in golf technology and maintain the challenge for modern players.

One of the most famous features of Augusta National is its azalea bushes, blooming vibrantly each spring, adding to the course's distinct beauty. The iconic Amen Corner, comprising the 11th, 12th, and 13th holes, has witnessed some of golf's most dramatic moments.
