It refers to those critical junctures when a person feels trapped by circumstances, burdened with grief, or overwhelmed by loss or failure. Such moments challenge the human spirit profoundly, testing resilience and the capacity to find meaning amid suffering.

Common Causes and Triggers

Despair can arise from numerous life events including personal loss, chronic illness, financial hardship, relationship breakdowns, or existential crises. The intensity and duration vary from person to person, but it often involves a combination of external stressors and internal cognitive or emotional processes. Understanding these triggers helps in recognizing and addressing despair before it leads to more severe mental health issues.
