Poetry is a form of literature that uses aesthetic and rhythmic qualities of language to evoke meanings in ways that differ from straightforward prose. For 6th graders, understanding and appreciating poetry can be a delightful journey, especially when exploring the use of figurative language. Figurative language in poems adds depth, color, and emotion, making them more engaging and meaningful.

What is Figurative Language?

Figurative language refers to words or expressions that go beyond their literal meaning to create vivid imagery, comparisons, or emotional impact. Common types of figurative language include similes, metaphors, personification, hyperbole, and onomatopoeia. Each of these elements plays a crucial role in making poetry more expressive and engaging.

Similes and Metaphors

Similes and metaphors are two of the most common forms of figurative language used in poetry. A simile is a comparison between two unlike things using the words 'like' or 'as.' For example, 'Her smile was as bright as the sun.' A metaphor, on the other hand, makes a direct comparison without using 'like' or 'as.' For instance, 'Her smile was the sun.' These comparisons help create vivid images in the reader's mind, making the poem more relatable and engaging.

Personification

Personification is the act of giving human qualities to non-human objects or ideas. This technique is often used in poetry to make the subject more relatable and to evoke emotions. For example, 'The wind whispered through the trees,' gives the wind a human quality of whispering. This makes the scene more vivid and engaging for the reader.

Hyperbole and Onomatopoeia

Hyperbole is an exaggerated statement used for emphasis or effect. For example, 'I've told you a million times!'

Onomatopoeia, on the other hand, is the use of words that imitate the sounds they describe. Examples include 'buzz,' 'hiss,' and 'crash.' These elements add a sense of realism and immediacy to the poem, making it more dynamic and interesting.

Examples of Poems with Figurative Language

Here are a few examples of poems that use figurative language effectively:

1. 'The Road Not Taken' by Robert Frost

This poem uses metaphors to describe the choices we make in life. The 'road' represents the choices, and the 'yellow wood' symbolizes the difficulties and uncertainties we face.

2. 'Hope is the Thing with Feathers' by Emily Dickinson

This poem uses personification to describe hope as a bird that sings in the soul. The bird represents hope, and the song represents the joy and comfort it brings.
