The Context of Korean Language Certification

Language certification serves as a formal benchmark for linguistic proficiency, critical in academic, professional, and immigration contexts. The Korean language, with its unique linguistic features and growing global presence, has created demand for standardized evaluation tools. The Test of Proficiency in Korean (TOPIK) emerged as the primary certification, administered by South Korea's National Institute for International Education since 1997.

The Structure and Levels of TOPIK

TOPIK's design reflects a comprehensive evaluation of Korean language competencies, divided into two major categories: TOPIK I for beginners (levels 1 and 2) and TOPIK II for intermediate and advanced learners (levels 3 through 6). The exam tests listening, reading, and writing, with each level corresponding to specific language capabilities aligned with the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages (CEFR).
