Foundations of Catholic Social Teaching

Human Dignity

At the heart of the Catholic Church's social teaching is the principle of human dignity. Every person is created in the image of God and deserves respect and protection. This foundational belief underpins all other social principles and calls for a society that honors and upholds the worth of every individual.

The Common Good

The common good refers to the conditions that allow people to reach their full potential and live fulfilling lives. The Church teaches that society should be organized to promote the well-being of all, especially the poor and vulnerable.

Solidarity and Subsidiarity

Solidarity emphasizes the interdependence of all people and calls for a commitment to the welfare of others. Subsidiarity, on the other hand, promotes decision-making at the most local level possible, supporting communities and individuals to take responsibility for their lives.

Historical Context and Theological Foundations

Emergence in the Modern Era

The formal articulation of Catholic social teaching began with Pope Leo XIII's 1891 encyclical Rerum Novarum, which responded to the tumultuous social changes brought by industrialization. This document established a framework addressing workers' rights, private property, and the role of the state, setting the stage for successive developments.

Scriptural and Doctrinal Roots

Grounded in Scripture, particularly the teachings of Jesus Christ on love and justice, Catholic social doctrine integrates longstanding Church traditions emphasizing human dignity and the moral obligations toward society's vulnerable.

Core Principles and Their Implications
