The dancers embody the character of the witch, expressing themes of power, transformation, and sometimes protection through their movements and the symbolic item they carry.

The Key Item: The Broom

Central to the dance La Bruja is the broom, or 'escoba' in Spanish. The broom is not just a prop; it is a powerful symbol. Traditionally, the broom represents cleansing, both physical and spiritual. In the context of the dance, it signifies the witch's ability to sweep away evil spirits, negativity, and bad luck.
